

Toyoda Gosei in Numbers

Since Toyoda Gosei's establishment in 1949, we have been providing products and services with high functionality and quality based on our synthetic rubber, synthetic plastics and their formulation technologies in cooperation with various stakeholders involved in development, design, procurement, production and sales.

Establishment

75 years

In 1934, the rubber research department was established within Toyoda Automatic Loom Works, and in 1949, the predecessor "Nagoya Rubber" was founded. For over 70 years, we have been providing value to society, focusing on rubber and plastic technologies.

Number of locations

60 companies

(As of June 26, 2024)

Number of employees (Global)

38,951 people

Revenue (IFRS)

¥1,071.1 bn

Sales ratio by customer

Overseas sales ratio

67.1%

Airbag share

World-wide 18%

* Based on data from our Company as of March 2024

About 90% of the global market share is occupied by four companies, including ours, and we are consistently ranked among the top four.

Credit rating (R&I)

A+

(As of October 2, 2024)